

UiT institution-specific requirement

UiT The Arctic University of Norway places a strong emphasis on the integration of research and education. We therefore encourage applicants to include an element of student involvement and/or contributions (students at all three cycles/levels), such as through virtual or physical mobility, in their applications

Applicants are required to submit a copy of their application to natalia.kononova@uit.no to ensure the institution is informed about all applicants and their proposed projects.